L'ENVOI.

When earth's last picture is painted
And the tubes are twisted and dried,
When the oldest colors are faded,
And the youngest critic has died; We shall rest—and, faith, we shall need it, Lie down for an aeon or two Till the Master of All Good Workmen Shall set us to work anew.

And those who are good shall be happy.
They shall sit in a golden chair;
They shall splash at a ten-league canvass.
With brushes of comet's hair;
They shall find real saints to draw from—Magdalens, Peter and Paul;
They shall work for an age at a sitting
And never get tired at all!

And only the Master shall praise us,
And only the master shall blame;
And no one shall work for money,
And no one shall work for fame, But each for the joy of working And each for the love of the art.
Shall draw the thing as he sees it.
For the God of Things as They Are,
RUDYARD KIPLING.

MISS HEUSTIS'S WORK IN NEW YORK.

Miss Louise Heustis, of Mobile, is one of the clever young women of the South who has succeeded in New York city. A recent issue of Town Topics says:

Miss Louise Heustis gave her friends the pleasure last Friday afternoon of viewing some recently completed portraits at her studio, Fifty-sixth street and Madison avenue. The exhibition was highly interesting, particularly to those who have watched Miss Heustis's career in the hard field of the portrait painter. She is particularly happy with women and children, catching inherent graces in the former and the ingenuousness of the latter.
Her work has broadened a great deal, and with the tremendous industry which Miss Heustis undoubtedly possesses the next few years should show still greater strides in her work.

GAY-PATERSON WEDDING.

The account of the wedding of Miss Alice Gay, who formerly resided here, will be read with much interest. It is taken from the Montgomery Advertiser.

A marriage in which the affectionate interest of a large number of friends is centered is that of Mr.
Wallace Bruce Paterson and Miss Alice Gay which was beautifully solemnized Thursday evening at o'clock at the home of the bride's brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs.
Frederick McManus, in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives of the popular young couple.
The home was a bower of beauty for the occasion, and the wealth of spring blossoms used seemed to have bloomed their prettiest for the happy occasion.

In the parlor, where the ceremony was performed, Easter lilies and white carnations were effectively used. The mantel was banked with white carnations, and an altar was formed of palms, and ferns studded with white carnations. Above the heads of the young couple was a canopy of hot house smilax, studded with white carnations. The chairs were decorated with a shower effect of white ribbon and white carnations. In the hall white peonies, Easter lilies and hot

DEMANDS $200 FROM ACTRESS; IS JAILED

Lillian Russell

Charged with demanding two hundred dollars from Miss Lillian Russell, the actress, Walter Harder, a young mechanic, was recently arrested at Rock Island, Ill., on a federal warrant charging misuse of the mails. He is said to have written a number of letters to Miss Russell at Chicago. She turned them over to the post office department and caused his arrest.
Young Harder is believed to be affected mentally.

Great preparations are in progress to make this day one of the most nota-

WHAT EVERY WOMAN KNOWS

No woman can decorate her head with false hair in the shape of rats, puffs, switches and transformations and make it appear natural. Hair growing on the scalp it adorns is the only kind that always looks right.
There is a grace and beauty in natural hair which is not to be mistaken.

Newbro's Herpicide permits the luxuriant growth of beautiful hair. It kills the dandruff germ, preserves the hair and gives it the life and brightness of true hair health.

Every woman may have beautiful, glorious hair growing on her own head.
There is no secret about it—use New-bro's Herpicide.
